Delft travel information

Arriving by airplane

The main international airport is Amsterdam Schiphol which is less than hour by car or train from Delft. Alternatively, you may arrive at Rotterdam airport, which is only a few kilometers away, or at Eindhoven airport. Please look at the relevant websites for complete travel information.

Arriving by train

The TU-Delft campus can be easily reached from Delft Central station either by foot (15 minutes), bus 121 or taxi. Train connections to Delft Central station include:

- Den Haag Central Station or Hollands Spoor, 10 minutes, €2.
- Schiphol Airport, 45 minutes, €8. Change train in Leiden or Den Haag HS.
- Amsterdam, 1 hour, €1.
- Rotterdam, 15 minutes, €3.

Click here for connection time tables. Alternatively you may arrive from Germany, Belgium or France by high speed trains.

Arriving by car

From The Hague or Rotterdam, you can reach Delft via the A13. Take junction 9 for the centre of Delft and follow the signs. Coming from Amsterdam or Schiphol, it is located at the end of the A4 motorway. For a detailed route description, please look at routeplanner. The old city centre has been made largely car free, but there are two large parking houses at the edge of the centre (Zuidpoortgarage and Phoenixgarage). Several parking areas are available in the area of the University.

Arriving by bus

Buses from Den Haag and Rotterdam terminate at the Delft bus terminal, which is located in front of Delft railway station. Tram line 1 from Den Haag (HS) runs to Delft and has stops near the city centre and railway station.

By tram

Tramline 1 runs from Scheveningen, through the center of Den Haag and Den Haag HS, to Delft. Travelling time is approximately 20 minutes from the center of Den Haag to the center of Delft. From Scheveningen to Delft takes about 45 min.
